WELCOME...

to the 2011 Edgar Kaplan Regional which is once again being held at the Hilton and run by the Greater New York Bridge Association. We apologize for raising the card fee to $20 but it is necessary for two reasons:

1. We lost $20,000 because of the blizzard last December
2. Hotels in New York are getting still more expensive.

The good news is that we have a hotel for May—the Park Central on 56th and 7th. It is smaller than the Hilton so our 199er events will be held at Manhattan Bridge Club West.

Our 30 Board Members serve because we love the game and want everyone to love it as much as we do. It is a difficult game and there are so many ways to improve. One of the most fun is playing in tournaments. And running tournaments is the main reason the GNYBA exists. We run two Regionals, one in May and one in December, three Sectional Tournaments at Clubs (silver point week—the next one February 23 – February 29), the Pro-Am, the Betty Kaplan, the Grand Nationals, the North American Pairs and a Double Knock-out for each of the three levels—the Harter Cup (0-Life Master, the Sol Seidman (0-2000) and the Von Zedtwitz (open). There will be a new event November 16 – 18—a Bridge Triathlon.

Bridge players are a very competitive lot, and each year we have a dinner to honor the players who win the most points in the various categories over the year. The Ace of Clubs is black points only and the Mini-McKenney is total points—black, red, gold and platinum. The Players of the Year will be honored there also. So play often at the Clubs and the ACBL Tournaments--it's the best way to get better. Take lessons, play with a pro and read some of the countless books which have been written about the game. You'll have good days and bad days—no one wins all the time. When you do, it's exciting. But the most fun of all is bidding and playing a difficult hand perfectly.

At this Regional we have a great selection of events; the most prestigious are the Jim Becker Stratified Pairs, the Truscott Open BAM (Board a Match, which many consider the most difficult scoring in bridge) and the Goldman Open Pairs. We hope you will try your skill against some of the best players in the country.

Visit the Partnership and Hospitality desks in the hall if you need a partner or teammates, parking validation, to pick up a section top, a NY patch for your convention card, the list of local restaurants (some have given us discounts) or to ask for help with a problem. It is open 45 minutes before each game.

If you are a member of the ACBL and in Unit 155, you should have received a copy of the Post Mortem, which explains the various events. There will be copies at the Partnership Desk.

Scores from this tournament will be posted on our website: www.gnyba.org.

Many, many thanks to the volunteers who have worked so hard on our events this year, Ryan Connors, our Tournament Chairmen, and the host of people who have manned our partnership and hospitality desks. Have a great time and remember my favorite saying, "It's better to be lucky than good!"

Barbara McLendon, President GNYBA
